"THE ROAD KINGS" STILL RAISING MONEY FOR FOR CYSTIC FIBROSIS!

When Steve's employer, Airgas, decided to raise money to help find a cure for Cystic Fibrosis, Steve decided to help. Airgas had Orange County Choppers (the company featured on The Discovery Channel's "American Choppers") build 2 Airgas-themed choppers and has donated funds raised by touring the bikes to Cystic Fibrosis. Decided to get in on the action - Steve painted "The Road Kings" to commemorate Airgas' 25th Anniversary and help raise money for Cystic Fibrosis - $100 from each sale of "The Road Kings" limited edition giclée is donated to Cystic Fibrosis. You too can get in on the action - reproductions of this painting are still available for a limited time. Own art. And help a worthy cause.

For more information, go to the "Available For Purchase" section of SteveScheuringFineArt.com and look up "The Road Kings." Or, go to www.cff.org, the official Cystic Fibrosis website, click on "Get Involved," and look for Steve's painting in the "Shop For Merchandise" section.

COMING SOON... "CRASH"

Have gotten e-mail from some of you asking why there hasn't been any new work posted to the site since early Spring. Good reason for that - been busy at work on my most time-consuming and complex piece to date - "Crash." This 19" X 47" still life painting showcases a large crash of toy cars. This painting is similar to the award-winning painting "Jam," pictured on the front page of this newsletter. However, "Crash" is twice the size and features three times the number of cars. I've already worked on this piece for over 180 hours, and it's about half-way finished. Below is a small snapshot (representing less than a quarter of the painting) of "Crash." Keep looking to SteveScheuringFineArt.com for photos of this finished work.
