VOLUME 6 – FALL 2008

“CRASH” IS FINISHED!

It's finished. “Crash” is my most complex and time-consuming painting to date. “Jam” – the sister painting to “Crash” – took roughly 80 hours to complete. “Crash” took nearly 240 hours.

Love playing Hot Wheels with my son. Sometimes he lines the cars up nice and neat (see “Jam”). Sometimes he just likes to dump the cars in a big pile. Was going for a more abstract composition, but couldn't resist drawing the viewers eye to the monster truck. Hid a bunch of stuff, like names of Hi everyone. Lots happening this Fall. Just finished “Crash.” And, the next large-scale painting is in the works – it'll be 48” X 60” – should be fun. And my first New York City showing at SOHO20 was a success. The holidays are right around the corner – remember, art makes a great gift. my children and friends, in this painting. Also used a number of novelty cars like the shark, the WWII bomber, and gorilla cars. And, over half the cars have flames on them – seemed appropriate given the painting is of a car crash. “Crash” is 19.5” X 47” and is available as a signed, numbered, limited edition of 100 giclée on canvas under the “Available For Purchase” section of the website.

CHINATOWN, NYC

Love New York City. Was with some friends driving through Chinatown when I captured a few reference shots used to paint this picture. We circled this street a number of times – got lost listening to our navigation. I'm usually attracted to light. In this case, what struck me was the shadow. Liked the cool, subtle detail on the neon signs and the grid-like angularity of the scene. Also loved painting the woman with her child hiding in her shadow in the foreground. “Chinatown – NYC” is available as a signed, numbered, limited edition of 15 giclée on canvas at SteveScheuringFineArt.com.

KEEPING THE PENCILS SHARP

Completed this pencil drawing of my wife, Stacey, for her birthday. Like to keep the drawing skills sharp - play around with graphite and colored pencil drawing whenever I can. Have completed over a half dozen in the past year - check out the "Private Collection" section of the website for more.

SEA ISLE AND CAPE MAY

Completed two more Jersey Shore 8" X 10" paintings - both of which are available through the website in the "Available For Purchase" section as limited edition giclées. Make great gifts. Pictured below is "Sea Isle - Mike's and Marie's" featuring two of my favorite restaurants on the Sea Isle Bay. Yeah - that's the famous "Smile - You're In Sea Isle City" water tower in the background. Below that is "Lobster House Dock" featuring another staple restaurant in Cape May.

NEW YORK CITY SHOWING

Participated in two great shows this summer. The first was the 14th Annual International Art Exhibition at the SOHO20 Gallery in New York City. This exhibition featured 23 artists selected from a field of over 300. "Jam" was featured (pictured left). Was pleased to be part of this show - thank you to all at SOHO20 for your hospitality. Also this summer was the Berks Art Alliance Show at Reading, PA's Goggleworks. The Goggleworks is this great art studio network/independent film theater/art gallery in an old goggle factory in the heart of Reading, PA. "Apple Harmony" was selected for the Berks Art Alliance show (pictured left bottom). Proud to be a member of this Berks County artist group - the caliber of the work at this show was top notch.
