VOLUME 11 – WINTER 2010

“SWEET RIDES” IS COMPLETE

The latest in my toy-themed paintings is finished, “Sweet Rides.” This painting, like “Crash” and “Jam” features an arrangement of toy cars. All the cars in this painting have something to do with sweets – candy, ice cream, cereal, etc. Had fun painting this one – loved the nostalgia of the neighborhood ice cream truck. “Sweet Rides” is 24” X 36” and is available as a signed, numbered limited edition giclée print on canvas. Please look for more information in the Giclée section of the Artwork page on the website.

Hi everyone. Hope you and your families enjoyed the Holidays. All is well here. Recently completed “Sweet Rides” – the latest in toy car-themed paintings. Been drawing a bunch. And, have a few large pieces in the works that I’m excited about. Look forward to sharing them with you. Wishing you a happy and prosperous 2010.

SO, WHAT'S IN THE WORKS?

I've recently started another large-scale toy-themed painting – this one ties the themes of all the other toy paintings together. The working title for the painting is “Fitting In” and features a number of nostalgic toys and ones with personal meaning. This arrangement includes Star Wars figures, Mr. Potatohead, various superheroes like Wolverine and Spiderman, Rock'em Sock'em Robots, Barbie dolls, a James Brown doll (had to figure out a way to shoehorn “The Godfather of Soul” into one of my paintings), various dinosaurs, toy soldiers, Hot Wheel cars, and a slew of others. This new painting will be 3' X 4' and will ultimately be available as a limited edition giclée. Please look to the website to view progress of this painting.

STEVE PASSES THE 100 MARK

There are now over 100 unique paintings and drawings created by Steve on view at the website, many of which are for sale. There are 4 categories of art on the site. 1) Framed artwork – these are original oil paintings or giclées already framed and available for purchase. 2) Giclées – this section houses the majority of Steve's work. In this section, artwork is available for sale as signed, numbered limited edition prints. 3) Original oil paintings – this section has one-of-a-kind oil paintings available for sale. And, 4) Private collection contains paintings and pencil drawings that have not been released for sale. That doesn't mean they're not available – please inquire. To view a painting, simply click on the thumbnail. To read about the painting, click on the information tab at the top of each photo.

THE "PARADE" KEEPS GROWING

Have recently completed a number of large works – "A Pile of Soldiers", "Crash", "Jam", and, most recently, "Sweet Rides." I've recently started another very large painting with a similar theme. But, after completing one of the larger, more complex pieces, I feel the need to loosen up a bit and polish off the drawing skills. Have added to the Parade series of drawings with 5 more. Two feature interesting participants in a 4th of July bar crawl at the Jersey Shore (The Evel Knievel-looking guy on the left and the couple on the right). And three others feature participants in a parade in New York City (the two in the middle and large one on the bottom). All of the Parade colored pencil drawings are studies for a large-scale painting I plan on starting next year.
