

UPDATE

STEVE SCHEURING
FINE ART

VOLUME 13 – FALL 2010

“FITTING IN” FINISHED

Took a long time, but I've finally finished with “Fitting In”, my latest toy-themed painting. Had a blast painting this as it features a number of toys I played with as a kid (...OK, I still play with some of them). This painting is 48” X 60”. It is currently not available as a giclée, but please inquire on the website – if there's enough interest, a limited edition giclée may be made available.

This painting is already making a splash. Just entered it in the Berks Art Alliance's annual competition at the Goggle Works in Reading, PA. The painting was named an honorable mention in the show. And, it received a great reaction at the opening – check out opening photos below.

It's been a busy few months. Just finished two New York City Shows. Was an honorable mention in this year's Berks Art Alliance Show. And, have 3 paintings that were named as finalists in The Artist Magazine's competition - this is my third time being recognized. Also, Vincent Miller, editor and publisher of International Artist magazine, has just contacted me to do a feature article on my artwork in an upcoming issue - look for more information on the website. Thanks for your continued support and encouragement. Check out SteveScheuring.com for the latest info.

Steve Scheuring
Steve@SteveScheuringFineArt.com

STEVE IN NEW YORK CITY

Just had the privilege to participate in two New York City Shows. One was at New York's prestigious Salmagundi Club. This private artists' club holds a non-member show once a year – was thrilled to have "Sweet Rides" be part of the show, especially since so many artists in the show are ones I admire. And, a number of the paintings in the show are ones I recognize – the work in this show was amazing. Stacey and I had chance to talk to Max Ginsberg, a New York City painter I've admired for years – check out his work – it will blow you away. The first two photos below are from this show. The second show was in the heart of Chelsea's gallery area at the Viridien Gallery. "A Pile of Soldiers" received a very positive reaction – was honored to be selected as one of 25 artist for this group show. The bottom two photos are from this show's opening.

STEVE'S A FINALIST AGAIN IN THE ARTIST'S MAGAZINE'S ANNUAL COMPETITION

Steve was named a finalist in The Artist's Magazine's prestigious 27th Annual Art Competition. Steve is one of a number of finalists in the Still Life category selected from thousands of entries. This year, Steve is honored to have 3 works that were selected as finalists – "Sweet Rides," "Crash," and "A Pile of Soldiers." Steve will be listed in the December 2010 issue of the magazine, available on news stands later this year. This is Steve's 3rd time being recognized by The Artist Magazine – Steve was a finalist in their 24th and 26th Annual competitions as well. Learn more at theartistsmagazine.com or click on the links section at stevescheuring.com.

STEVE TO BE THE SUBJECT OF A FEATURE ARTICLE IN INTERNATIONAL ARTIST MAGAZINE

Steve was recently contacted by Vincent Miller, the editor and publisher of International Artist magazine. Wants to feature Steve and his artwork in an upcoming issue. The article will feature over a half dozen paintings and a section that shows the various steps in the completion of "Crash."

The finished copy was just reviewed. "I'm pretty excited to be recognized in this magazine. I read every issue cover to cover. Not sure yet which issue will feature me and my work, but I'll post updates on the website." International Artist is available at most major book stores.

GIVE THE GIFT OF ART

The Holidays are right around the corner. Consider giving the gift of art. At stevescheuring.com, nearly 100 limited edition giclées are available, many of which are printed on paper, which makes them easy to frame. Scenes of favorite places like the Jersey Shore, New York City, local farms, Philadelphia cheesesteak stands, The Penn State campus, and many more are available. Or, consider giving an apple or tomato still life. Check out the selection under the Giclée tab of the Artwork section of stevescheuring.com. To order, click the "Buy Now" button – all orders securely processed through PayPal.

Limestone Business Web

Find out what makes Limestone Business Web the best choice for small business website development!
LimestoneBusinessWeb.com

