VOLUME 18— SUMMER 2013

NEW PAINTING — “INSANTATY”

Love Christmas. Have fond memories of nutcrackers, cookies, Pez dispensers, any of the Rankin Bass specials, The Grinch, classic movies – love it all. Wanted to play with reflecting light, so included some Christmas lights. Painting this one sparked many fond memories. My daughter came up with the name. 48” X 36”.

NEW "PARADE" DRAWING

Captured the reference photo for this colored pencil drawing a few years ago at a parade in New York City. Have had this one on the "to do" list for a while - finally got around to working on it. Something compelling about a Native American carrying The Stars and Stripes - had to draw this one. Great sunlight. Great colors. Great subject matter. Hope you enjoy.

Please check out SteveScheuringFineArt.com to see more images from the Parade series. Go to Artwork, Private Collection. Have a bunch of other reference photos that fit with this theme - look for additional drawings in the future.

SO, WHAT'S IN THE WORKS?

Working on the next in a series of large, collage-like still life paintings. This one's called "Super." Pretty large painting, 36" X 48". Features DC, Marvel, and a bunch of obscure super hero memorabilia. Started working on this one over the Winter. Probably won't be finished until the early Fall. Here's a snapshot from a very small section of the painting.
